

Playgarden at Almaden Lake

...from inspiration to reality!

A capital campaign in support of an all-inclusive Playgarden.

All families deserve a place of belonging and inclusivity. Together we can make a difference!

With a truly all-inclusive playground in Almaden Lake Park, seniors, disabled children or parents, and caregivers will no longer be only spectators.

They will be able to join the fun!

San Jose and south bay families with disabilities will have a safe place to gather that is accessible to them, where they can build relationships with other families and where generations can play together.

A shovel-ready project that is ready for your investment today!
